Provider Certification Training in Collaborative Problem Solving*

For: Clinicians and educators

When: Weekly for 24 sessions, October 4th, 2010 through April 25, 2011, 12:00 pm – 1:30 pm Eastern time

Description: Through this intensive, highly individualized six-month training experience in Collaborative Problem Solving, Dr. Ross Greene will provide clinical case consultation to a maximum of 10 individuals, who will meet as a group via telephone conferencing for 90 minutes each week. Participants will receive consultation and coaching from Dr. Greene on cases (or students) actually being seen on an ongoing basis by each individual, with such feedback facilitated by recordings of actual sessions. At conclusion of the training, an assessment will be conducted to ensure competence in the model; participation in the 6-month supervision does not ensure certification. A prerequisite is that participants must have previously participated in a Level I training with Dr. Greene and must have cases/students they can work with (and record sessions) on an ongoing basis for the duration of the training.

Fee: $2465 per person

- I plan to participate in the training.
- I cannot participate, but would like to hear about future dates. Please fill out contact information below.
